

Trim Trail Fundraising Project - update 25th March

Here is a brief update on the Trim Trail Fundraising. We are happy to report a lot of good news this time!

This year SPSA related activities with your support we have raised:

- Penny Wars- £622.12 - mufti days for winning classes taking place on 8th April
- Family afternoon tea £1,159.87 - thank you so much to Darling Occasions who transformed the school hall into a beautiful afternoon tea venue for us. And big thank you to Morrisons for providing the majority of the food & cake ingredients for the event. You can check out some pictures of the event on the SPSA facebook page.

We have received two unbelievably generous corporate donations and give our thanks to Mrs Barriball for securing these:

- £1000 from Formark Scaffolding, based in Whyteleafe
- £3000 from Samsic UK - a UK-wide facilities management company

If your line of work enables you to support either of these companies please do mention our thanks from St Peter's for their kind contributions. If your company would like to donate some much-needed funds please get in touch.

Next up:

- SPSA Trim Trail Raffle 2022 is now live ticket sales opened at the afternoon tea and will close Tuesday 5th April. You can get your tickets online here
- We have an online fundraising page here where you can keep up to date with our events and donate. Please circulate the link to family, friends and colleagues who may be able to donate.
