Dear Parents

You may remember that as part of our commitment to safeguarding we ran some sessions in September for parents on how to keep children safe from online predators. These were run by Zoe Barkham from Octavo. The sessions focused on internet safety and the parents of children of all ages found them very useful.

Due to requests from parents we will be running a repeat session on

Tuesday 15 January at 9.15 am

There is no need to book, just come along.

Yours sincerely

Caroline Barriball and Samantha
Acting Co-Heads of School
