6 February 2019

Dear Year 6 Parents/Carers,

This term we have focused our English and IPC work around the topic of World War Two. As a part of this we have been looking at the book 'The Emergency Zoo'.

On 11th February we are very lucky to have a visit from the author of the book, Miriam Halahmy. Miriam will be running a workshop which will include:

- Discussing the inspirations for the book
- Learning a WW2 song
- Looking at Morse Code
- Looking at some WW2 artefacts

- Children will also have an opportunity to get their copies of 'Emergency Zoo' signed (if they own their copy). Every child will be given a postcard with the book cover on it. Alongside the workshop Miriam will be giving an exclusive reading of 'Saving Hanno', her latest book due to come out later in the year.

We are extremely excited to be able to offer the children this unique opportunity, the cost for this visit will be £3.00 per child which is payable via ParentPay.

If you wish to buy your child a copy of the book prior to the visit it can be brought from Amazon by clicking on this link.

Please note that the children will only be allowed to have one book signed each.

Many thanks,

Mrs Smith, Miss Couch and Miss Ellery
